Art.4

La Repubblica riconosce a tutti i cittadini il diritto al lavoro e promuove le condizioni che rendano effettivo questo diritto. Ogni cittadino ha il dovere di svolgere, secondo le proprie possibilità e la propria scelta, un'attività o una funzione che concorra al progresso materiale o spirituale della società.

... il riconoscimento della dignità inherente a tutti i membri della famiglia umana e dei loro diritti, uguali ed inalienabili, costituisce il fondamento della libertà, della giustizia e della pace nel mondo;
... il disconoscimento e il disprezzo dei diritti umani hanno portato ad atti di barbarie che offendono la coscienza dell'umanità, e che l'avvento di un mondo in cui gli esseri umani godono della libertà di parola e di credo e della libertà dal timore e dal bisogno è ato proclamato come la più alta aspirazione dell'uomo; ... è necessario che i diritti umani siano protetti da norme giuridiche, se si vuole evitare che l'uomo sia costretto a ricorrere, come ultima istanza alla ribellione contro la tirannia e l'oppressione; è indispensabile promuovere lo sviluppo di rapporti amichevoli
